

FACULTY FAVORITES

Each month of the 2021/22 school year, your favorite King's faculty will be invited to participate in an exclusive rapid-fire interview where they get to share a little bit about themselves and their favorite popular media. Continue reading this edition to learn more about:

Dr. Jeffrey Dudiak

1. "Tell me a little bit about what you do at King's?"

"I allow students to teach me how to live faithfully and well. On the side, I teach philosophy courses, and cheer lustfully for the King's Eagles."

2. "What kinds of things are you involved in outside of your job?"

"My principal concern is teaching the history department humility on the snooker table."

3. "What are your top two favorite books?"

"Probably Tolstoy's Anna Karenina and Emmanuel Levinas' Otherwise than Being, or Beyond Essence. They both changed my life."

4. "What are your top two favorite movies?"

"GoodFellas, because I'm fascinated by worlds to which I will never belong. Also, Howard's End. I have massive crush on Helena Bonham Carter."

5. "What are your top two favorite music albums?"

"Any of Glenn Gould's piano concertos, and Meat Loaf's Bat out of Hell."

"Wow, Meat Loaf. So you do have a wild side."

"Oh yes, absolutely."

6. "Is there anything else you wanted to say to everyone reading?"

"I think what I want people to know is that I'm more handsome than I look. Also, most of the time you can tell a book by its cover."

"Thanks for your time, Dr. Dudiak."

Who should I interview next?! Email me at REDACTED.